Many congratulations
on the excellent result. How did you enjoy the White
City! did you do
the scenic Rly.
H.R.
Kind regards to all.
